

EMBRYONIC INTERACTION

Acts committed between August 1969 and January 1974

1. CHARACTERISATION OF VICTIMS

Belonged to armed organisations

2. CHARACTERISATION OF THE ACTS

Crimes committed in 1973

Place of the crime

74%

of the victims were taken to a place of detention. Military sites were the most common place of detention.

62%

of victims were transferred.

POLICE COORDINATION

Acts committed between February 1974 and January 1975

1. CHARACTERISATION OF VICTIMS

87%
Males

96%
Adults

60%

Members of armed organisations

22%

Members of political groups

13%

Members of international organisations

2. CHARACTERISATION OF ACTS

Place of the crime

Argentina 87%

Brazil 11%

78%

of victims were taken to a place of detention, of which police stations were the most common place.

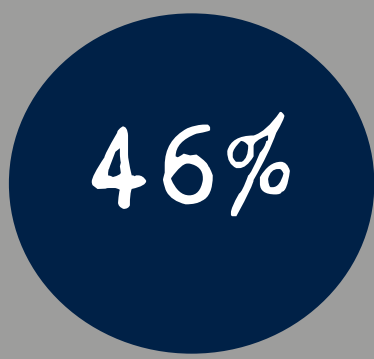

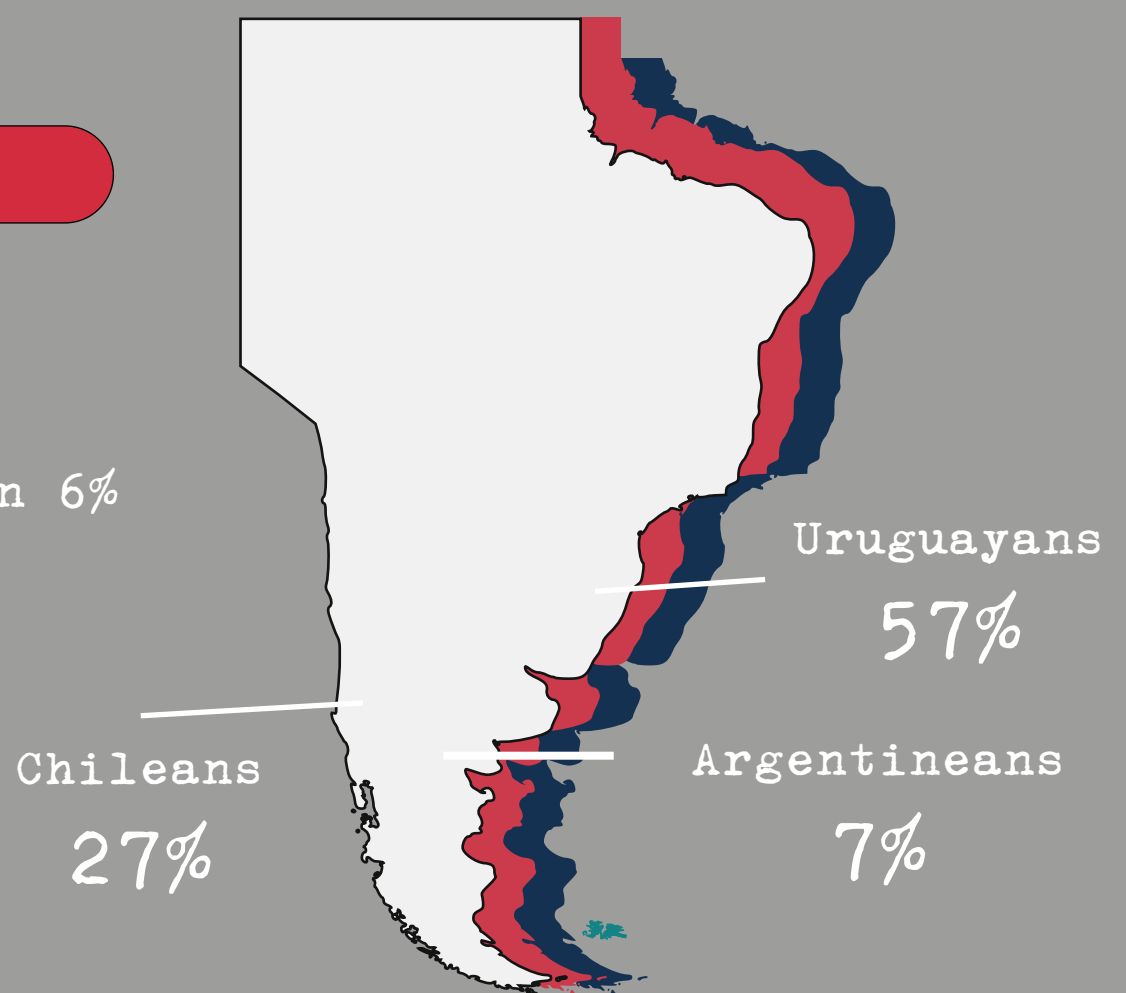

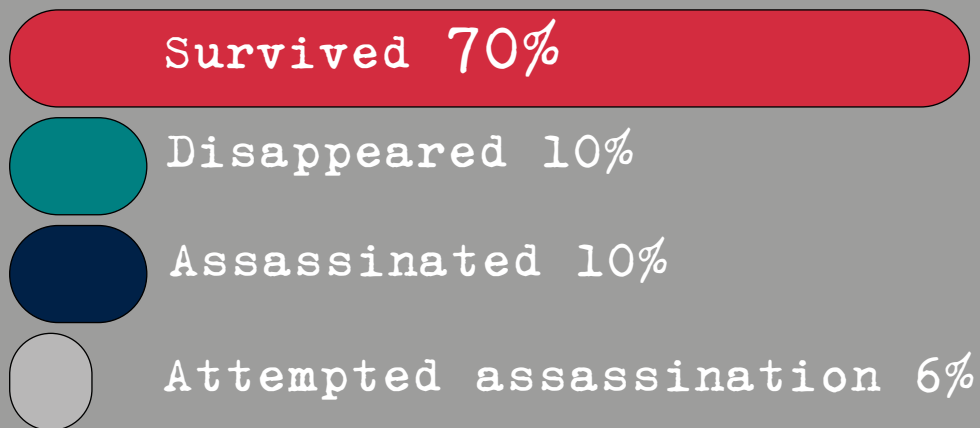

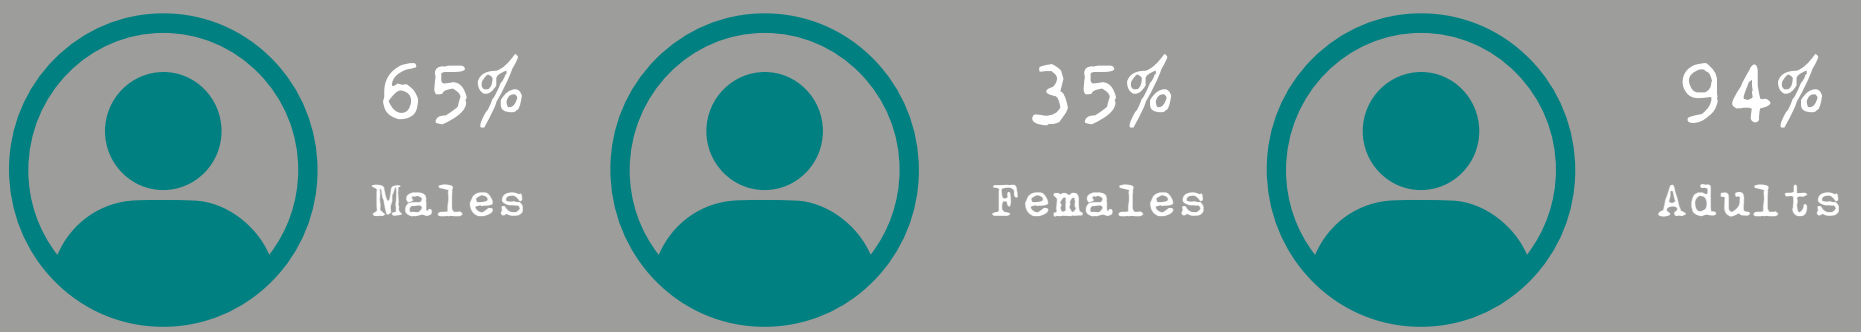

55%

of victims were transferred, 53% of whom were taken to Uruguay.

HYBRID COOPERATION

Acts committed between February 1975 and February 1976

1. CHARACTERISATION OF VICTIMS

Members of armed organisations

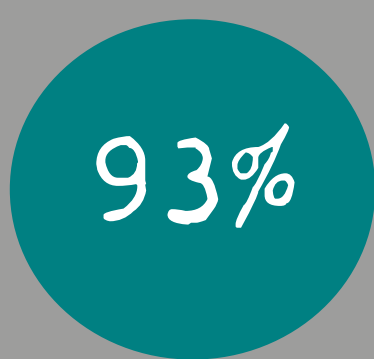

Members of political groups

Members of international organisations

2. CHARACTERISATION OF ACTS

Crimes committed in 1975.

Crimes committed in Argentina.

74%

of victims were taken to a place of detention, of which military sites were the most common place.

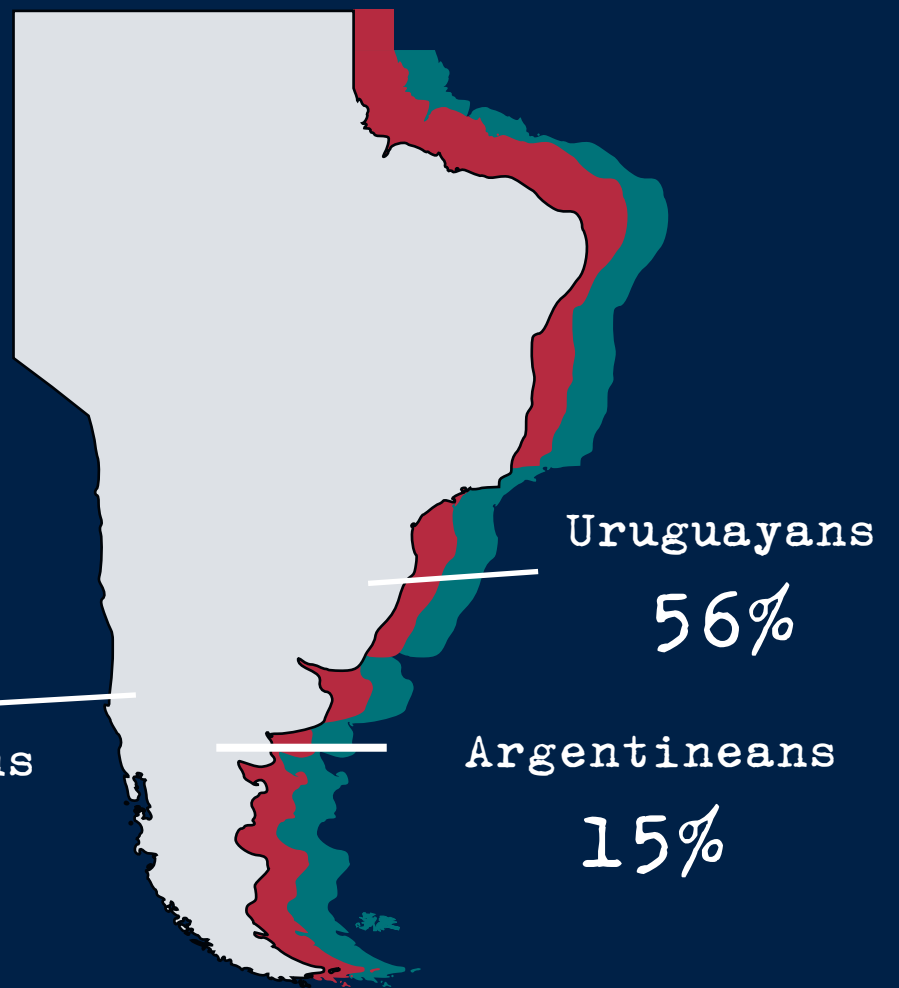

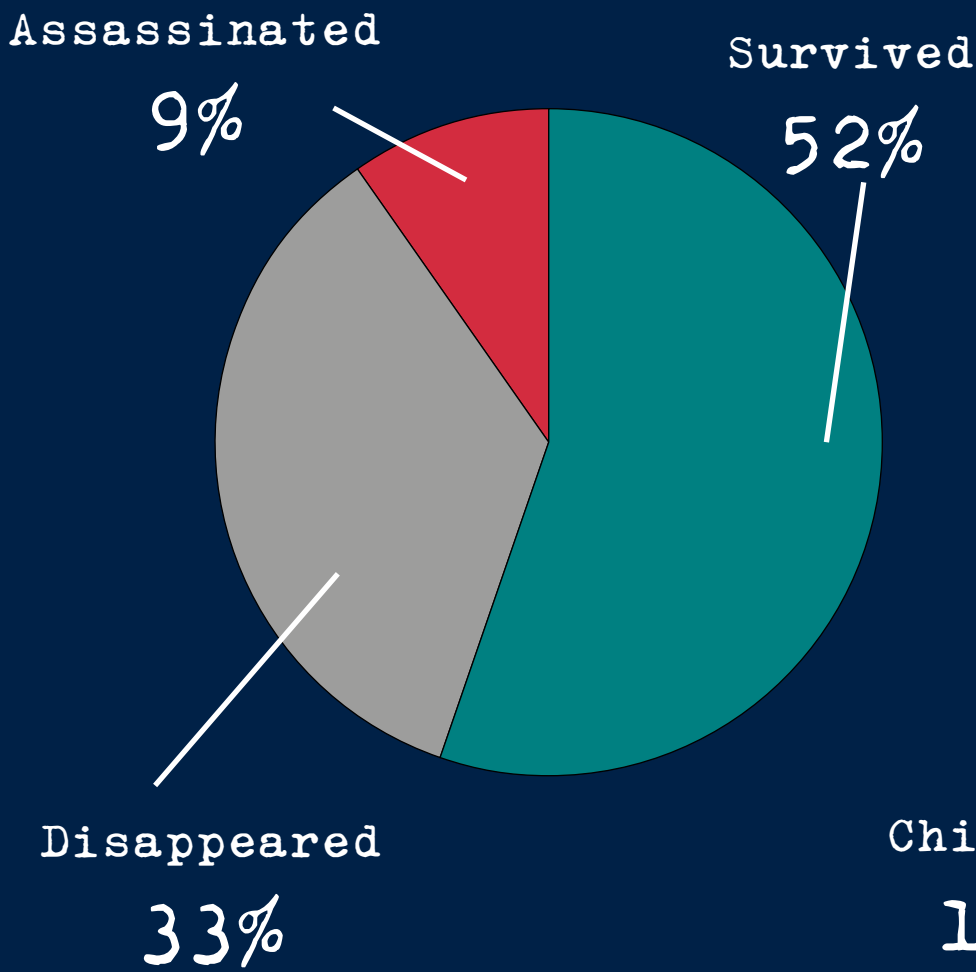

62%

of victims were transferred.

CONDOR SYSTEM

Acts occurred between March 1976 and December 1978

1. CHARACTERISATION OF VICTIMS

Members of armed organisations

Members of political groups

Not involved in militancy

2. CHARACTERISATION OF FACTS

Crimes committed in 1976.

Crimes committed in Argentina.

Crimes committed in Uruguay.

96%

of victims were taken to a place of detention. There is an equal distribution between military sites, police stations and civilian properties.

53%

of victims were transferred, 30% of whom were taken to Uruguay

POST-CONDOR DYNAMICS

Acts committed between January 1979 and February 1981

1. CHARACTERISATION OF VICTIMS

68%

Males

90%

Adults

32%

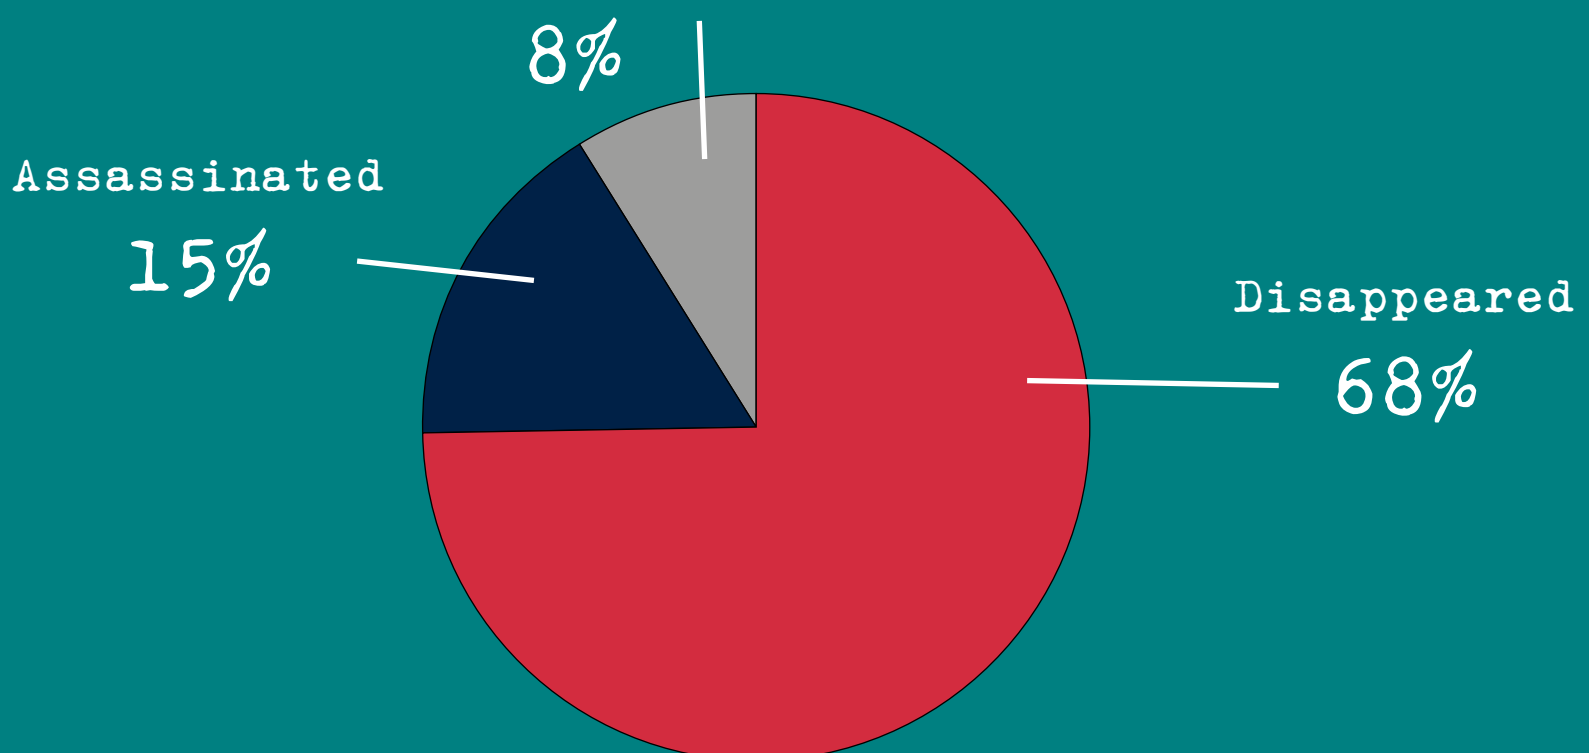

Females

10%

Children

Children returned to biological families

84%

Members of armed organisations

12%

Not involved in militancy

93%

Argentinean nationality

2. CHARACTERISATION OF FACTS

52%

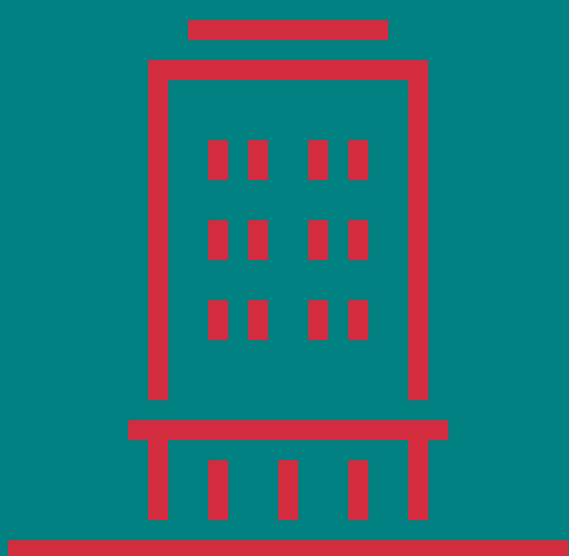

Crimes committed in 1980

81%

Crimes committed in Argentina.

11%

Crimes committed on the border between Argentina and Chile or Brazil

93%

of cases have records of the victims' arrest but no records of the place of detention.

87%

of victims have no records of the victims' clandestine rendition.